Getting ready for Spring....

Hello and a very warm welcome from everyone at Special Auction Services. We are Springing into action this April and bringing you a feast of auctions. We're delighted to present Six auctions, the line-up for April looks something like this; be sure to keep an eye on the online catalogues as we are aiming to have our auctions published online 2-3 weeks before each sale day, giving you more time to ask for those conditions reports or request extra images

- 7th April – Antiques & Collectables – Newbury
- 13th April – Glorious Trains Part One
- 20th April – Fire Marks
- 21st April – Alexander Devine Charity Auction
- 27th April – Photographica
- 29th April – Antiques & Collectables – Dudley

The team have been working like busy bees to achieve the above, we're still not working to full staffing capacity, however, everyone is rolling up their sleeves and finding new ways of working. Great job team, keep up the fantastic work!

We are absolutely buzzing here as we've managed to consign some exciting lots, make sure you keep visiting our website for exciting updates in the up and coming months.

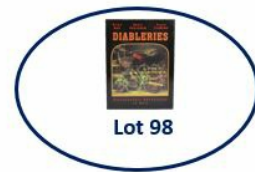

That's it for now, please see below a few featured items in our next two up & coming auctions.

All the best,
The SAS team

Special Auction Services are thrilled to announce their subsequent auction in the Midlands is set up and ready to be sold 25th March 2021 albeit behind closed doors.

In line with government legislation, the auction will be online only. You can request further details and additional images via email dudley@specialauctionservies.com.

You can register to bid via our website www.specialauctionservices.com. If you are a successful bidder you will be emailed an invoice. Upon receipt of payment via bank transfer, your items can be made ready for collection by appointment only.

This also applies for courier collection. We are unable to offer in house postage yet in Dudley but recommend That's Your Lot based locally in Wombourne on 01902 475212 or info@thats-your-lot.co.uk.
