

Dear friends,

Welcome to the April Newsletter from Special Auction Services.

We are pleased to announce our new system has launched, If you bid on our own bidding platform going forward you will be able to see this. Our new system will enable you as both a buyer and a vendor to have access to your own profile with an inventory of all statements and invoices. It should make buying and selling through SAS a much more positive and easier experience. You will receive and email asking you to reset your password and you may be asked to replace / renew your password for bidding in the next auction but should you experience any issues please get in touch and we will endeavour to talk you through any problems.

SAS are pleased to be able to invite viewing appointments for each auction several weeks in advance of the auction date. Please don't hesitate to get in touch.

Don't forget we hold free valuations every Wednesday by appointment so please do make an appointment and pop in to see us!

lif you regularly open and read your newsletter and after April SAS emails no longer find you, please don't hesitate to email Neil@specialauctionservices.com and let us know so we can ensure you don't miss out again!!!

We have highlights, previews and news all below!! Click on the links to view the full catalogues and register to bid.

Don't forget to view, register and bid via SAS Live or the saleroom.com, online catalogue links below.

Good luck and happy bidding...

You can register to bid via our websitewww.specialauctionservices.com. If you are a successful bidder you will be emailed an invoice. Upon receipt of payment via bank transfer, your items can be made ready for collection by appointment please or we can add packing and postage to your invoice.

If you wish to consign any of your items in our forthcoming auctions, please contact us. Please call 01635 580 595 or email mail@specialauctionservices.com to make an appointment
