A good 19th Century Sevres hard paste porcelain bust of Napoleon Bonaparte not otherwise known, after a model by Jean-Antoine Houdon wearing the Colonel's uniform of the National Guard and raised on a blue and gilt socle base marked in red 'M. Imple de Sevres for 1806' and 'B.1.', almost full sized bust with three buttons (four on Houdon's plaster and eventual marble carving exhibited in 1808 but due to the difficulties in hard paste porcelain production only three of the four buttons feature), incised with script signature under right shoulder, 'Houdon f' 62 cm high x 43 cm wide x 27 cm deep.

This bust should not be confused with the later editions produced throughout the 19th Century, these have only two buttons on the jacket and do not bear the script artists signature. The later editions are impressed in block capitals.

This bust is of particular interest due to its exact resemblance to Houdon's 1808 marble bust which is exhibited in the Palace de Versailles and was recently in the touring exhibition 'Jean-Antoine Houdon Sculptor of the Enlightenment' 2002. This one and the one offered here are the only known examples signed by Houdon in this same style and on the right shoulder.

Although no copies of the marble bust were recorded in hard paste, Houdon and Alexandre Brongniart the administrator of the Sevres factory at this time had a close relationship due to the sculptures Houdon made of his children, Louise and Alexandre.

The base also bears a Metro Goldwyn Mayer (MGM) number XX13659 which represents the internal inventory number system that stayed with each prop film to film.

This bust was sold in an eighteen day public auction by 'The David Weisz Co.' starting May 3rd 1970 this being lot 5455 'Bust of the Young Napoleon', white bisque on a blue socle, (When Ladies Meet 1941).

The bust has been painted in white and the socle base has some minor chips, the repainting could be possible restoration by the studio.

It is known that Napoleon's brother Joseph-Napoleon lived in the United States (1817-1832), where this otherwise unknown bust may have entered the country and helped in its survival few Sevres busts survive as Louis XVIII ordered their destruction when he assumed the crown.

An exceptional piece with a fascinating history which has crossed continents from the 19th Century to the present day, gracing the salons of Paris to the studios and glamour of Hollywood. One has to consider what would Napoleon have thought of that?

Insurance cover on shipments is not provided within this charge. We also reserve the right to ask the buyer to complete a disclaimer regarding this service prior to despatching the goods. Alternatively, you will (at your own expense) pay for and personally collect or arrange your own courier to collect any Lots that you have purchased. This must be undertaken no later than 7 days following the day of the auction. You may not claim or collect a Lot until you have paid for it. If you do not pay for or collect the Lot within this time period, you will be responsible for any reasonable removal, storage and insurance charges in relation to that Lot.

Warranties: The Seller warrants to us and to you that: the Seller is the true owner of the Lot for sale or is authorised by the true owner to offer and sell the lot at auction; the Seller is able to transfer good and marketable title to the Lot to you free from any third party rights or claims; and as far as the Seller is aware, the main characteristics of the Lot set out in the auction catalogue (as amended by any notice displayed in the saleroom or announced by the Auctioneer at the auction) are correct. If, after you have placed a successful bid and paid for a Lot, any of the warranties above are found not to be true, please notify us in writing. Neither we nor the Seller will be liable to pay you any sums over and above the Total Amount Due and we will not be responsible for any inaccuracies in the information provided by the Seller except as set out below.

Descriptions and condition: Our descriptions of the Lot will be based on: (a) information provided to us by the Seller of the Lot (for which we are not liable); and (ii) our opinion (although it is likely that we will not be able to carry out a detailed inspection of each Lot). Weights and measurements given are all estimates. We will give you a number of opportunities to view and inspect the Lots before the auction. You (and any independent consultants acting on your behalf) must satisfy yourself about the accuracy of any description of a Lot. We shall not be responsible for any failure by you or your consultants to properly inspect a Lot. Representations or statements by us as to authorship, genuineness, origin, date, age, provenance, condition or estimated selling price involve matters of opinion. We undertake that any such opinion will be honestly and reasonably held and accept liability for opinions given negligently or fraudulently. Please note that Lots (in particular second-hand Lots) are unlikely to be in perfect condition. Lots are sold "as is" (i.e. as you see them at the time of the auction). Neither we nor the Seller accept any liability for the condition of second-hand Lots or for any condition issues affecting a Lot if such issues are included in the description of a Lot in the auction catalogue (or in any saleroom notice) and/ or which the inspection of a Lot by the Buyer ought to have revealed. We will give indications of provenance where stated by sellers. It is imperative that potential buyers or their Agents inspect lots that interest them prior to the auction. Purchases of autographed materials and works are made at the risk of the purchaser. Subject to our Terms and Conditions we cannot accept returns on these items.
