

The Wine gets hammered at auction!

News & Views from SAS

Dear Friends

It has been a frantic September so far and it's far from over as we still have our Music & Entertainment auction on Tuesday 21st live from Newbury and then we travel up to the Midlands on Thursday 30th September for our Antiques & Collectables live from Dudley.

The wine section in our latest Corkscrews & Wine auction was quite breath taking to witness! It was literally flying out of the auction room. Approximately 55 wine lots hammered around £32,000 plus BP... if you're thinking of selling your wine collection you know who to call...

Planning for next years auction calendar is underway, again please speak to either Thomas or Neil about consigning lots for auction. Keep an eye on our auction calendar via our website, 2022 auction dates will appear throughout the coming weeks.

COVID update, please be encouraged to continue to wear a face covering, hand sanitiser will be provided when entering our premises. You're welcome to view the sale in person by booking an appointment, so please don't turn up as you may be turned away or asked to wait outside until such a time as is appropriate for you to view. Auctions will remain online and behind closed doors, any further developments will be conveyed in due course.

That's it for now, stay safe, enjoy your Sunday and we'll see you very soon!

All the best

Team SAS
