Music & Entertainment Auction

Took Place on Tuesday 27th & Wednesday
28th July at our Newbury Saleroom

Sold! £1,000 plus BP

An autograph book with signatures obtained by the vendor, Sheila Shorten, when she went to see the Beatles at the Gaumont, Bournemouth in August 1963. The Book was bought by Sheila especially for the occasion and contains all four Beatles signatures on one page, plus autographs of the other artists from the bill that evening comprising Tommy Quickly, Billy J Kramer plus Ray Jones and Robin MacDonald of his Dakotas, all five members of the obscure R&B band The Sons of the Piltown Men and Gary & Lee. Sheila writes as follows: "My friend and I both went to the concert wearing A-Line Red Skirts and Black Roll Neck Sweaters. At the end of the concert my friend and I rushed round the the Stage Door where we caught Billy J Kramer and Tommy Quickly who gave us their autographs along with others. We were told that the Beatles had left but were on the balcony of a nearby hotel. We found the hotel and because of our outfits we were noticed by the Beatles. We shouted for their autographs and were let in to the hotel and the autograph book takes to the Beatles, but we were not allowed out on to the Balcony but they did wave to us". As Sheila wasn't present in the room at the time of the signing, it is possible that some or all of the Beatles signatures were signed by different band members to the names, or by the likes of Neil Aspinall. The Book also includes a Donovan signature which Sheila obtained some time later and stuck into the book together with a page of unidentified signatures. The Book remains in excellent condition and comes with a signed letter of confirmation from Sheila and a print of the poster from the concert
